

aries

Roger Scott

PAYSON — Roger Burton Scott, 54 of Payson, died Sept. 13, 1990, at his home, of cancer.

He was born April 25, 1936, in Logan, a son of Vaughn LeRoy and Donna Hopkins Scott. He married Linda Snow April 27, 1959. They were later divorced. He married Pamela Haws Smith Jan. 12, 1987, in Payson. Their marriage was solemnized Oct. 10, 1987, in the Provo LDS Temple.

He was raised in Millville and attended Cache County schools and South Cache High School in Hyrum. He served in the U.S. Army. He was a independent truck driver and taught trucking at Utah Trade Tech. He enjoyed rodeo and was a rodeo coach at Utah Trade Tech.

He was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was a high priest and was serving as a counselor in the Payson West Stake Mission Presidency.

He is survived by his wife, Payson; one daughter and four sons, Mrs. Don (Loreley S.) Noriman, Roger Lynn Scott, Vaughn Troy Scott, Tracy Scott, Zane Scott, all of Orem; two step-sons and three step-daughters, Daryl W. Smith, Portland; April A. Smith, Payson; Daria L. Smith, California; Jay A. Smith, Payson; Julie L. Smith, Provo; six grandchildren; two brothers, Vaughn L. Scott, Jr., Logan; and his twin, Richard S. Scott of Millville.

Funeral will be Monday, 11 a.m. in the Payson West 21st Ward Chapel, 1690 S. 930 West. Friends may call at Walker Mortuary, 587 S. 100 West, Payson, Sunday, 6-8 p.m. or at the church Monday, 10-10:50 a.m.

Burial will be in Millville City Cemetery at 4 p.m.